

This Eastlake Victorian home is a romantic treasure possessing the beauty and grandeur of the past, with modern amenities to provide the ease and comfort of today. The three-story house is adorned with all the trappings of a fine Victorian home, including a gorgeous slate roof with multiple peaks, overhangs and copper elements, a classic weathervane, brick chimney, wraparound porch, red stained glass windows and ornate decorative carving and latticework. A roomy deck upstairs rests above a lovely porte cochere with brick patio leading to the front door beneath.

Inside, the gourmet kitchen features granite countertops, a cooking fireplace and custom cabinetry. Massive mahogany pocket doors and 12-foot decorative plaster ceilings are found throughout, as are inlaid oak and mahogany floors, creating incredible flow from room to room, ideal for entertaining or large families. A full basement woodshop, study, playroom and oversized master suite with large clawfoot soaking tub provide plenty of room for mom and dad, while the third floor children's rooms keep kids neither too close nor too far. It's no wonder she's on the National Register of Historic Places. ☺
